

Living Memory

Wimbledon Community Chorus
and The Central Band of
The Royal British Legion

Conducted by the 3 times BAFTA award-winning
David Cole OBE

Present

A programme of band and choral pieces for Armed Forces Day including the world premiere of Living Memory by Pete Churchill

Saturday 25 June

6.30pm (Doors 6pm)

Holy Trinity Church, Beaumont Rd, London, SW19 6RJ (SatNav)

TICKETS: £15 (£10 concessions)

Further details and tickets from our website

www.wimbledoncommunitychorus.org.uk

David Cole OBE has been awarded three BAFTAs for his outstanding contribution to The Royal British Legion's Festival of Remembrance.

Pete Churchill is a renowned Jazz Musician & Educator & Professor of Jazz Studies at the Royal Academy of Music. All profits to the British Legion Poppy Appeal.

We are Wimbledon Community Chorus and we love to sing!

We sing for fun, but also perform two or three concerts a year

We have performed:

- at the Royal Albert Hall
- with Sonoro, a highly-acclaimed professional choir
- with exciting ensembles, including the Central Band of the Royal British Legion and Putney & Wimbledon Brass Band

We even commission music especially for our choir!

What members say about being part of our choir:

"Wimbledon Community Chorus is much more than just a choir; it is wholly inclusive, fun and therapeutic. It increases confidence in singing with others and brings the community together"

Tenor

"There is something very special about coming together with like-minded people to share music and friendship"

Alto

"Singing out is giving out your heart to others which makes everyone feel they have value and are not alone"

Soprano

"The choir helped me retain my happiness and self-belief"

Bass